1 (Case called)

2 THE DEPUTY CLERK: Is the government ready?

3 MR. BLAIS: Good afternoon, your Honor. Brian Blais,
4 Rebecca Mermelstein, and Andrew Bauer for the government.

5 THE COURT: Hello to each of you. I guess it is the 6 afternoon.

7 MR. MAZZUCCO: Good afternoon, your Honor. Thomas
8 Mazzucco on behalf of Jason Galanis who is present.

9 DEFENDANT JOHN GALANIS: John Galanis appearing pro
10 se.

11 MR. LASSART: Good morning, your Honor. James Lassart
12 appearing on behalf of Jared Galanis.

13 MR. TREMONTE: Good afternoon, your Honor. Michael 14 Tremonte for Gary Hirst whose presence has been excused today.

15 MR. BRASS: Anthony Brass for Derek Galanis. Good
16 morning -- or good afternoon, your Honor.

17 THE COURT: Good afternoon.

18 MR. RYAN: Good afternoon, your Honor. Kevin Ryan on 19 behalf of standby counsel for John Galanis.

20 THE COURT: All right. And also present is David
21 Touger from the Court's CJA panel. Thank you for coming,
22 Mr. Touger.

23 MR. TOUGER: No problem.

24 THE COURT: First order of business -- I'm sorry. I
25 see more of your colleagues.

GlF5galC

conference

1 MR. LEVINE: Seth Levine and Jillian Berman for Gavin
2 Hamels who has been excused.

3 THE COURT: Good afternoon to you both.

4 First order of business, at the last session we held
5 in this case, at least with Mr. John Galanis, I concluded that 6 Mr. Galanis knowingly and voluntarily waived his right to 7 counsel and had the right to proceed pro se, as was his desire
8 and I continued Mr. Ryan as standby counsel.

9 At that same session I offered to appoint standby
10 counsel under the Criminal Justice Act and Mr. John Galanis
11 respectfully declined to complete the CJA affidavit at that 12 time; correct?

13 DEFENDANT JOHN GALANIS: That is correct, your Honor.

14 THE COURT: I received a letter from Mr. Galanis in 15 which he says, "Now back at home in San Diego I conducted a 16 further review of the matter and now believe I can execute the 17 requested financial form which would demonstrate that I am
18 without the financial resources to retain counsel. Therefore,
19 I am requesting the Court conduct a hearing on January 15,
20 2016, or such other date that is convenient for the Court, to 21 consider my request for a federal public defender or CJA
22 counsel."

23 The letter was not docketed and I'm going to direct
24 the clerk to cause your letter to be docketed.

25 Mr. Galanis, I have now tendered to you a CJA form

G1F5galC

conference

1 affidavit.

2 DEFENDANT JOHN GALANIS: Yes, your Honor.

3 THE COURT: Do you wish to complete the affidavit at 4 this time and I will conduct an inquiry?

5 DEFENDANT JOHN GALANIS: I do wish, unfortunately
6 regarding the specifics of it, I have that material available
7 to me but not -- not here at the moment. I can -- in other
8 words, it requires income received in the last year.

9 THE COURT: Well, Mr. Galanis, so there is no doubt
10 here, you were provided a copy of the affidavit at the last 11 session --

12 DEFENDANT JOHN GALANIS: Yes, your Honor.

13 THE COURT: -- before you wrote me the letter that 14 you wrote.

15 DEFENDANT JOHN GALANIS: That is correct, your Honor.
16 What I did not know when I wrote my letter, I did not realize,
17 because I had not heard back from the Court, I did not realize
18 that you had graciously -- and I really appreciate it -- have 19 counsel available for me today.

20 THE COURT: What if I didn't? Would that change your 21 willingness to sign the affidavit?

22 DEFENDANT JOHN GALANIS: No, I'm perfectly prepared to 23 sign the affidavit, your Honor.

24 THE COURT: Then I will give you the time to do so.

25 DEFENDANT JOHN GALANIS: Thank you, your Honor.

GlF5galC

conference

1 MR. TOUGER: If I may?

2 THE COURT: Yes, Mr. Touger.

3 MR. TOUGER: He can have the paperwork emailed to the 4 Court by Tuesday.

5 THE COURT: No. No, Mr. Touger, because I sat in this 6 courtroom on the bench and I tendered a CJA affidavit to 7 Mr. Galanis. I gave him as much time as he needed to review it
8 and Mr. Galanis respectfully declined to do so and he told me
9 he needed to consult records that were located in San Diego. I
10 gave him the opportunity to do so and after a recess in the 11 proceedings he reported to me that he was declining to sign the 12 CJA affidavit, as is his right.

13 So, we have been down this path. Mr. Galanis has 14 waived his right to counsel.

15 Now, let me ask you, Mr. Galanis; there is an 16 ambiguity in your letter. When we were last present you
17 indicated to me that you wished to waive your right to counsel;
18 is that correct.

19 DEFENDANT JOHN GALANIS: That is correct, your Honor.

20 THE COURT: Okay.

21 And I appointed standby counsel, Mr. Ryan, and I
22 offered to appoint a second standby counsel under the Criminal
23 Justice Act.

24 DEFENDANT JOHN GALANIS: Correct, your Honor.

25 THE COURT: What is not clear to me in your letter is

G1F5galC

conference

1 do you no longer wish to represent yourself?

2 DEFENDANT JOHN GALANIS: That is correct, your Honor.

3 THE COURT: So you have changed your view.

4 DEFENDANT JOHN GALANIS: I do. Based on -- I'm sorry
5 I was not clear but in large part it was based on your 6 admonitions to me during your interview that I believe was 7 specifically a -- someone who represents himself has a fool for 8 a client.

9 THE COURT: All right.

10 Well, what I would be delighted to do for you is to 11 put this matter over until this afternoon to give you the 12 opportunity to complete the affidavit because you can't have it
13 every which way, Mr. Galanis. You can't assert the right to 14 represent yourself. You can't say you want counsel appointed
15 but not fill out the affidavit and you can't consciously
16 refrain from retaining a counsel.

17 So, you can have retained counsel, you can have 18 appointed counsel, or you can represent yourself. The one
19 thing you can't do, Mr. Galanis, is hold this in limbo. You
20 have forfeited your right to counsel and you waived it at the 21 last session. If you wish to have counsel appointed, I will 22 expect you to return with a completed affidavit and I will 23 conduct the examination.

24 Flo, can we do it at 2:00?

25 THE DEPUTY CLERK: Yes.

GlF5galC

conference

1 THE COURT: Would 2:00 be convenient for you,
2 Mr. Galanis?

3 DEFENDANT JOHN GALANIS: Yes, your Honor.

4 THE COURT: Mr. Touger?

5 MR. TOUGER: That's fine, your Honor.

6 THE COURT: Thank you very much.

7 All right. Until such time as Mr. Galanis has an 8 attorney who enters a notice of appearance or complies with the 9 requirements for appointment of counsel under the Criminal
10 Justice Act, his waiver of the right to counsel stands and he 11 represents himself.

12 Now, let me get an update from the government on where 13 things stand in the case.

14 MR. BLAIS: Thank you, your Honor.

15 With respect to the government's discovery
16 productions, as we represented to the Court at the arraignment,
17 we have produced discovery on a rolling basis. We have made,
18 since the arraignment, four discovery productions which I think
19 substantially completes the production of materials that we are 20 able to produce at this time. Your Honor is aware that there
21 is some materials that are the subject of under seal litigation
22 at this point and we obviously, given that that litigation is 23 ongoing of --

24 MR. MAZZUCCO: Your Honor, I object to the reference
25 to any matter that is under seal.

GlF5galC

conference

1 THE COURT: Sit down, please.

2 MR. BLAISE: And with respect to the materials that
3 are the subject of that litigation, we have not produced them
4 because the litigation is ongoing.

5 So, our discovery production is substantially complete
6 with respect to materials that we have concluded we are able to 7 produce on this matter and is not complete with respect to 8 those additional materials.

9 THE COURT: Let me ask you. Have you made any 10 application in this proceeding?

11 MR. BLAIS: Made any application with respect to?

12 THE COURT: With regard to the sealed documents?

13 MR. BLAIS: We have, your Honor. We made an 14 application for a sealing order -- I'm sorry, a protective 15 order which was granted and there were other applications that 16 were made with respect to that protective order.

17 THE COURT: Well, I entered a protective order. Is 18 that what you are referring to?

19 MR. BLAIS: That's correct, your Honor.

20 THE COURT: Right.

21 MR. BLAIS: And then there is ongoing litigation in 22 another district, your Honor, with respect to these materials.

23 THE COURT: Have you made an application in that
24 district?

25 MR. BLAIS: We have, your Honor.

GlF5galC

conference

1 THE COURT: All right.

2 Well, I think it's incumbent upon the parties -- let
3 me ask counsel for Jason Galanis, have you made an application
4 in another district?

5 MR. MAZZUCCO: Your Honor, we are filing a response to 6 an application in another district that was filed by the 7 government and prior to that we did make an application; yes,
8 your Honor.

9 THE COURT: Was your application ruled on?

10 MR. MAZZUCCO: Our application was ruled on, yes.

11 THE COURT: Was it granted or was it denied?

12 MR. MAZZUCCO: It was granted.

13 Excuse me, strike that, your Honor. I apologize.

14 Our application was denied but there is a ruling from 15 another Court that is the government has filed another motion
16 based upon that, and when I mean government I mean another U.S.
17 Attorney's office.

18 THE COURT: Have you made application in this other
19 district?

20 MR. MAZZUCCO: In the Southern District? No.

21 THE COURT: Outside of the district?

22 MR. MAZZUCCO: We did initially; yes, your Honor.

23 THE COURT: Was that ruled on?

24 MR. MAZZUCCO: It was ruled on.

25 THE COURT: Do you care to furnish a copy of that

GlF5galC

conference

1 ruling to me?

2 MR. MAZZUCCO: I don't have it with me but I told
3 Mr. Blais told that he would have a copy of the ruling and it
4 was sent to another U.S. Attorney's office and I'm not in 5 charge of handling how things go to other U.S. Attorneys, so I
6 apologize.

7 THE COURT: When did you get this ruling?

8 MR. MAZZUCCO: December 23rd.

9 THE COURT: Well, I tell you what. Why don't you fax
10 that to me so I get it by 2:00 today.

11 MR. MAZZUCCO: Will do so, your Honor.

12 THE COURT: Was there a particular reason why you
13 didn't furnish it to me?

14 MR. MAZZUCCO: Your Honor, it was supposed to be 15 furnished to the government. They were the initial moving
16 party.

17 THE COURT: I thought you just told me you made an 18 application, sir.

19 MR. MAZZUCCO: We made an application. The order --
20 there was a response from the government, another U.S.
21 Attorney's office did respond, and we would assume that they 22 received it as we have received it.

23 THE COURT: No. Let's go back to the question.

24 Do you remember the question I asked you?

25 MR. MAZZUCCO: I do, your Honor.

GlF5galC

conference

1 THE COURT: Okay, and what is the answer?

2 MR. MAZZUCCO: We did not serve that upon the
3 government. We received --

4 THE COURT: I don't think that was the question I
5 asked.

6 Do you have the question I asked, Pam?

7 OFFICIAL REPORTER: Yes, your Honor.

8 (Record read)

9 THE COURT: Is there a particular reason why you
10 informed me of the application you made in the other court but 11 you didn't inform me of the ruling on the application?

12 MR. MAZZUCCO: Your Honor, the letter that was sent to 13 you yesterday, there was -- you were informed, if I'm not 14 mistaken -- I was on an airplane yesterday -- your Honor, I
15 don't feel comfortable discussing this matter in open court
16 based upon another sealed matter. At this time I ask that this 17 matter be handled ex parte, along with the government, under 18 seal, outside the presence of the other defendants.

19 THE COURT: You can't answer the question why you told 20 me you were making an application but you didn't tell me that 21 the application was ruled on.

22 MR. MAZZUCCO: It's my understanding, your Honor --
23 again, I feel uncomfortable talking about this in open court
24 based upon an under seal matter. I can answer your question if 25 we do so with the government, myself, and your court staff,

GlF5galC

conference

1 outside the presence of the other defendants and I can answer
2 your question directly then.

3 THE COURT: All right.

4 Come on up to the side bar. I would just like to hear
5 the answer to the question.

6 MR. MAZZUCCO: Thank you, your Honor.

7 (Pages 14-16 SEALED by order of the Court)

GlF5galC

conference

1 (In open court)

2 THE COURT: I think it is absolutely ridiculous but
3 for the moment I will seal the side bar and I reserve the right
4 to lift the seal at any point in time. This is public
5 litigation, this is a public proceeding, and it is going to 6 stay a public proceeding.

7 Now, when would you care to file your motion to 8 dismiss?

9 MR. MAZZUCCO: Your Honor, if you set a briefing
10 schedule for us we will follow that.

11 THE COURT: Okay.

12 MR. MAZZUCCO: Although -- that's fine.

13 THE COURT: January 29th for the motion; response due
14 February 10; reply due February 17.

15 What else do we need to do today?

16 MR. BLAIS: Your Honor, I believe the purpose of 17 today's conference, in addition to just providing a general
18 update, was for defense counsel to also advise the Court of any 19 motions that they wish to file and to set a schedule for those 20 matters.

21 THE COURT: All right. Any motions anyone wishes to 22 file?

23 MR. LASSART: Your Honor, James Lassart on behalf of 24 Jared Galanis.

25 Your Honor, at this time I don't believe I am in a

GlF5galC

conference

1 position to be able to advise the Court of a motion because we
2 have received approximately 2 million pages of documents, some
3 of which we have not been able to review, plus I know there is 4 some additional half a million pages of documents that are 5 still coming and I don't know if this is also the time to bring 6 this up but -- let me finish that.

7 So, I am not in a position to be able to advise the 8 Court of any motion on behalf of my client until I have a good
9 opportunity to review those documents and I can tell the Court
10 that we are doing it diligently and cooperating with counsel to 11 try to set up a database that's reviewable by more than just 12 us. But, I find that we are jamming time and capacity in the 13 sense that it is really significant information. It is 14 necessary for us to be adequately prepared to both do motions
15 as well as to defend the matter.

16 THE COURT: As to what you know so far you have no
17 motions?

18 MR. LASSART: Well, as to what I know so far and some 19 of which had become today on a Rule 17 subpoena that the Court
20 issued and the return date is today, and that's a procedure I
21 am unfamiliar with how we would receive those documents. I can 22 show the Court the return service, that will help us make a
23 decision about whether or not we have a motion to dismiss a
24 particular count within the indictment.

25 It is a -- that's one of the issues out there for us.

GlF5galC

conference

1 THE COURT: All right.

2 Let me hear from anyone else that has any motions they
3 wish to make in this case.

4 MR. TREMONTE: Your Honor, Michael Tremonte for 5 Mr. Hirst.

6 We have a similar situation. There was an initial,
7 very, very large production that was made some time ago by the 8 government which the government described at our prior status
9 conference. We got that in a timely fashion and we have been 10 making efforts very consistently and diligently since then but 11 on top of that, in the intervening weeks, we have received, I
12 think, four additional productions of discovery which alone
13 total over a million documents including 400,000 just this past
14 week so we, too, we don't have motions to make as of today,
15 your Honor, but we would like additional time to evaluate the 16 discovery that the government has produced in recent weeks and 17 revisit that question.

18 THE COURT: How much time are you looking for?

19 MR. TREMONTE: I think we need at least another month,
20 your Honor.

21 THE COURT: Well, I think you are pushing it. Let's
22 see when we have time, however.

23 Flo? This is what I will do. I will give all 24 defendants until February 15th to file any motions they wish to 25 file; the government will have until March 4th to respond to

GlF5galC

conference

1 the motions; and the defendants may reply by March 11 and I
2 will rule on them at the final pretrial conference.

3 MR. LASSART: Your Honor, I took the Court's request
4 or question regarding motions as those motions that were 5 substantive with regard to the facts of the case and the 6 propriety of the indictment. I did not take it as a question
7 as a procedural and the reason I am so -- rather than let this
8 time pass, I believe we would request a motion to continue this 9 trial because it -- and if, obviously, I believe, based on the 10 lack of ability to prepare that we have excludable time and 11 that it is time necessary for preparation. Now, if that's a 12 motion that that Court was envisioning within the request, then 13 that's a motion that we do have to make.

14 THE COURT: All right. But if you have to make that 15 motion you don't need more time to make that motion.

16 MR. LASSART: Absolutely.

17 THE COURT: So, are there any motions? The record is 18 any motions that you wish to make in this case that you know of 19 as of now. You have identified one. Is that it?

20 MR. LASSART: The motion to continue plus the motions
21 I am unable to identify that I have explained to the Court.

22 THE COURT: All right. So, how long will it take you
23 to make your motion?

24 MR. LASSART: To continue the matter?

25 THE COURT: Yes.

GlF5galC

conference

1 MR. LASSART: We can do that within a couple weeks,
2 within a week or so.

3 THE COURT: How about a week?

4 MR. LASSART: That sounds like a -- sure.

5 THE COURT: The government can respond in a week?

6 MR. BLAIS: Yes, your Honor.

7 THE COURT: And you can reply three days later. Okay?

8 MR. LASSART: Yes, your Honor.

9 MR. TREMONTE: Your Honor, Michael Tremonte again.

10 I don't want to assume anything. We are likely to 11 join that motion and I am asking permission to make it, if such 12 permission is required.

13 THE COURT: No permission is required. You can go
14 ahead and make it on the same schedule.

15 MR. TREMONTE: Thank you, your Honor.

16 THE COURT: Any other defendant have any motions they 17 wish to make?

18 MR. LEVINE: Your Honor, for Gavin Hamels, we ask for 19 the schedule that you have already set of February 15th to 20 allow us to finalize what motions we will be filing.

21 I also have one question for the Court. I know the 22 Court has set February 19th as the date for government to file
23 motions in limine.

24 THE COURT: Correct.

25 MR. LEVINE: Just so we are clear in response to any

GlF5galC

conference

1 motions our response to that motion, their motions will be
2 after, obviously, the stay.

3 THE COURT: Right.

4 MR. LEVINE: I want to make sure I understand the stay
5 order.

6 THE COURT: I thought I set a schedule on the motions
7 in limine. I believe I did.

8 MR. BLAIS: Yes, your Honor. It was the request.

9 MR. LEVINE: You did, your Honor. I want to make sure
10 that when we are talking about motions, for example we may have 11 motions in limine after seeing the government's.

12 THE COURT: Very fair point. Very fair point and 13 thank you for clarifying that.

14 I should also state that with regard to the motion for 15 a continuance which is due January 22nd, and I mention that the 16 government's opposition is due or its position is due January
17 29th, a week later, I will also set January 29 as the date for 18 any party who opposes the continuance or the exclusion of time
19 to make a written submission regarding therewith.

20 John Galanis, do you understand what I have said?

21 DEFENDANT JOHN GALANIS: I do, your Honor. I
22 understand.

23 THE COURT: Thank you.

24 Okay, anything else?

25 MR. BLAIS: Your Honor, we have just one minor issue

G1F5galC

conference

1 to raise.

2 THE COURT: Yes.

3 MR. BLAIS: And your Honor may perhaps want us to 4 address this in writing but it is an agreed upon bail
5 modification with respect to Derek Galanis. We are more than 6 happy to put it in writing if that would facilitate it.

7 THE COURT: I think in writing works because if it is 8 agreeable, then I can enter it as an order of the Court and we 9 have a written record.

10 Does that work for you, sir?

11 MR. BRASS: It does. Sorry, your Honor. Anthony
12 Brass for Derek Galanis.

13 For clarification on the motion to continue, which I
14 also intend to join, is there a hearing date on that?

15 THE COURT: No.

16 MR. BRASS: Okay. It will just be on the papers.

17 THE COURT: It would seem so, unless there is 18 something I need. All right?

19 Yes, sir, Mr. Touger? I am going to see you at 2:00.

20 MR. TOUGER: We are already done, your Honor.
21 Mr. Galanis is ready to sign the form now if the Court wants to 22 do it now.

23 THE COURT: We can do that. We can do that, if 24 Mr. Galanis is prepared.

25 DEFENDANT JOHN GALANIS: I'm just a short time from

GlF5galC

conference

1 finishing, your Honor; five or 10 minutes.

2 THE COURT: Take your time. We don't need to come
3 back at 2:00 but I want -- Mr. Galanis. This is an important
4 document. I want to make sure that it is right so I want to 5 give you the time that you need.

6 DEFENDANT JOHN GALANIS: Thank you, your Honor.

7 THE COURT: We are adjourned as to everyone other than 8 John Galanis unless there is something else that anybody who 9 wants, to bring it to my attention.

10 MR. LASSART: Your Honor, James Lassart on behalf of 11 Jared Galanis.

12 I do have a question on the Court's proceeding on 13 returns on that Rule 17 subpoena. It was returnable to the 14 Court and I don't know, in this district, where that would be 15 located once it is returned.

16 THE COURT: Well, if the materials are returned to the 17 Clerk's office they will make their way to my chambers. If 18 they're sent directly to my chambers they'll be received there.
19 When I receive them -- this is not a trial subpoena, correct?
20 It is a discovery subpoena?

21 MR. LASSART: No, it is not a trial subpoena.

22 THE COURT: So, it is appropriate that all counsel in 23 the case have access to it, correct?

24 MR. LASSART: Yes, your Honor.

25 THE COURT: That's fine. So, I have no idea what the

GlF5galC

conference

1 volume is. I may say it is not available for pickup. We will
2 see what happens. If it is three sheets of paper I probably
3 could have my clerk do something simple with it. If it is a
4 box, it is a different story.

5 MR. LASSART: Thank you, your Honor. I just didn't
6 know how it works here.

7 THE COURT: There you go. What else?

8 MR. LASSART: Nothing more here.

9 THE COURT: Okay. And time has been excluded until 10 the trial date.

11 MR. BLAIS: Time has been excluded through the trial
12 date, your Honor.

13 THE COURT: Thank you all very much, and if the 14 government and Mr. Galanis can remain behind, I would 15 appreciate that, and Mr. Ryan also, and Mr. Touger. And John 16 Galanis, of course. Thank you.

17 (Recess)

18 THE COURT: All right. Please, be seated. This is 19 United States of America against John Galanis. Is the 20 government ready?

21 MR. BLAIS: Yes. Good afternoon, your Honor. Brian
22 Blais for the government.

23 THE COURT: All right.

24 And Mr. John Galanis, are you ready?

25 DEFENDANT JOHN GALANIS: I am, your Honor.

GlF5galC

conference

1 THE COURT: And also present is David Touger from the
2 Court's CJA panel.

3 Mr. Galanis, have you had enough time to review the 4 proposed financial affidavit?

5 DEFENDANT JOHN GALANIS: I have, your Honor.

6 THE COURT: Have you completed it?

7 DEFENDANT JOHN GALANIS: I have, your Honor.

8 THE COURT: Mr. Touger, if you would please hand it
9 up?

10 (pause)

11 THE COURT: Mr. Galanis, I am going to have the clerk
12 administer the oath to you and then I am going to ask you
13 certain questions. If you don't understand anything I ask you,
14 please, let me know and I will put it into different words.
15 Also, if you wish to speak with Mr. Touger I will give you the 16 opportunity to do that.

17 Do you understand that?

18 DEFENDANT JOHN GALANIS: I do. Thank you, your Honor.

19 THE COURT: Please stand and the clerk will administer
20 the oath.

21 (Defendant John Galanis sworn).

22 THE COURT: You are now under oath and your answers to 23 my questions are subject to the penalties of perjury or of 24 making a false statement if you do not answer truthfully.
25 Also, any statement you make today may be used in any such

GlF5galC

conference

1 prosecution.

2 Do you understand all that?

3 DEFENDANT JOHN GALANIS: I do, your Honor.

4 THE COURT: Now, you are asked a question: Have you
5 received, within the past 12 months, any income from a
6 business, profession, or other form of self-employment or in 7 the form of rents, payments, interest, dividends, retirement or 8 annuity payments or other sources, and then there is a portion
9 here that says, if yes, give the receipt.

10 Now, I notice and I take this as just inadvertent that 11 you did not check either the box yes or no. Am I correct that 12 you intended to check yes?

13 DEFENDANT JOHN GALANIS: That was inadvertent and I am
14 willing to correct that.

15 THE COURT: To say?

16 DEFENDANT JOHN GALANIS: To say yes.

17 THE COURT: That's what I thought.

18 Now, it indicates that in the past 12 months you have 19 received, it looks like, $380,000.

20 DEFENDANT JOHN GALANIS: That is correct, your Honor.

21 THE COURT: Why then can you not afford counsel?
22 That's a sum of money which, I would say -- particularly I am
23 looking at your expenses -- vastly exceeds your rent and your 24 monthly credit card bill. And I realize that you have 25 indicated, quite appropriately, "approximate" on those numbers

GlF5galC

conference

1 but the number which I cited vastly exceeds, even on an annual
2 basis, your total debt.

3 DEFENDANT JOHN GALANIS: Your Honor, the basic numbers
4 I have given you are for 2015 as it states for the 12 months.
5 The numbers -- what is not included is the disbursement of 6 money during that period of time. It asked for my debts and my
7 income and during that period of time I also assisted my wife
8 in her -- whatever debts and responsibilities she had and I
9 also assisted my sons, and then I had legal expenses during 10 that period of time so most of it went in that manner.

11 THE COURT: Well, this appears to reflect the 12 opposite, a gift from your son of $115,000.

13 DEFENDANT JOHN GALANIS: That is correct. That's my 14 eldest son, your Honor.

15 THE COURT: All right. And so, I still don't 16 understand what of this $380,000 do you still have other than 17 the $300 which you claim you have in accounts.

18 DEFENDANT JOHN GALANIS: That's in cash, your Honor.
19 I have -- it is $100 in account and $200 in cash.

20 THE COURT: Do you have any other accounts, brokerage
21 accounts, securities accounts of any sort that has assets of 22 yours?

23 DEFENDANT JOHN GALANIS: No, I do not, your Honor.

24 THE COURT: Okay. So, what assets do you have beyond
25 the $300 in the savings or checking account?

GlF5galC

conference

1 DEFENDANT JOHN GALANIS: I don't have any, your Honor.

2 THE COURT: And so you are representing to the Court
3 that with the exception of the $300, the $380,000 that you
4 received in the past 12 months, you no longer have.

5 DEFENDANT JOHN GALANIS: That is correct, your Honor.

6 THE COURT: Now, Mr. Galanis, I should tell you that
7 you will likely have to repay the amounts for your CJA attorney
8 and that the Court will likely impose an obligation for you to 9 repay.

10 Do you understand that?

11 DEFENDANT JOHN GALANIS: I understand that, your 12 Honor.

13 THE COURT: And the Court may, at any time, impose an 14 installment payment plan on this.

15 Do you understand that?

16 DEFENDANT JOHN GALANIS: I do, your Honor.

17 THE COURT: Now, I have one question here. It says,
18 looks like the word "fiduciary guaranty." Is that what it is?

19 DEFENDANT JOHN GALANIS: It is, your Honor.

20 THE COURT: Now, there are two words before that, what 21 are they?

22 DEFENDANT JOHN GALANIS: It is actually one word, your 23 Honor: Thorsdale.

24 THE COURT: Thorsdale. Thorsdale Fiduciary Guaranty.
25 Who or what is that.

GlF5galC

conference

1           DEFENDANT JOHN GALANIS: That is a company that I
2 believe is owned or controlled by my eldest son Jason.

3           THE COURT: Is that a return on an note investment or 4 is that --

5           DEFENDANT JOHN GALANIS: No. I believe it is a
6 personal trust company and that he had disbursed money to me
7 for use of myself and my wife during 2015.

8           THE COURT: And you have an arrow here, it says
9 unlikely in 2016.

10          DEFENDANT JOHN GALANIS: Correct.

11          THE COURT: Was Thorsdale, are they obligated to pay
12 you any money in 2016?

13          DEFENDANT JOHN GALANIS: No, they are not, your Honor.

14          THE COURT: Okay. And was there some obligation
15 associated with this on the part of the institution?

16          DEFENDANT JOHN GALANIS: No. It was only familial,
17 your Honor.

18          THE COURT: All right. Well, let me return this to 19 you so you can correct that minor omission and re-review it and 20 see whether it is now accurate.

21          And, Mr. Touger, are you prepared to accept the 22 appointment?

23          MR. TOUGER: Your Honor, I am prepared to accept the 24 appointment but I would ask the Court, just from my being here
25 at the last court appearance, it is a very voluminous discovery

GlF5galC

conference

1 that needs to get to be reviewed over a very short period of
2 time; an aggressive period of time, shall we say. I don't
3 think that's possible for one attorney to do that. I would ask
4 that one of my suite mates who is on the CJA panel you
5 assign -- Mr. Joyce -- to co-counsel with me. I mean, it just 6 seems rather -- I can say I could do it but I don't see how I
7 could go through a million documents.

8 THE COURT: Well, this is what I'm going to do. I'm 9 going to invite you to consult with Jerry Tritz and if you want
10 to come forward with some sort of a budget or plan and get to 11 me quickly with what you're seeking approval of at what rate
12 after talking to Jerry Tritz, I will act on it quickly.

13 MR. TOUGER: The only --

14 THE COURT: Go ahead.

15 MR. TOUGER: I didn't want to cut the Court off.

16 The only problem is I don't have any of the discovery
17 yet, to come up with a plan.

18 THE COURT: Well, when I say a plan this is what you
19 can do. You can, once I approve this and appoint you, you can 20 meet with Mr. Blais and Mr. Blais can bring you up to date. I
21 have to know what I am approving. What I am not very big on 22 is, with regard to CJA counsel it is, in essence, a blank
23 check, of course subject to the rules of the CJA plan. But,
24 with regard to whatever other assistance I need to know
25 something.

GlF5galC

conference

1 MR. TOUGER: The only thing you would be approving,
2 your Honor, and that I can say at this point is to have two
3 lawyers working on the case reviewing the documents and 4 representing Mr. Galanis. If at some point in time that became 5 unnecessary, obviously -- whoever that co-counsel would become,
6 would no longer be necessary. But, there is no -- after 7 talking to both the government and the other lawyers that were 8 here today, there is no way that I could be -- get through all
9 of these -- just if you did the math there is no way to get
10 through these documents in time to do any of the schedule that 11 the Court has outlined as one person. I just don't see how 12 that's possible.

13 THE COURT: All I am saying, Mr. Touger, and you have 14 a very fine reputation in this district and that simply is you
15 will have to send me some particulars.

16 MR. TOUGER: No problem. I will talk to Mr. Tritz and 17 see what he needs from me.

18 THE COURT: And let me know what I am talking about or 19 what you are talking about so I can intelligently exercise
20 discretion.

21 MR. TOUGER: No problem, your Honor.

22 THE COURT: Okay.

23 MR. TOUGER: I will meet with Mr. Blais as soon as 24 possible and we will take it from there.

25 THE COURT: Okay.

GlF5galC

conference

1 MR. TOUGER: I assume we can do that by letter? We
2 don't need to appear in court?

3 THE COURT: Exactly correct.

4 So, let me just --

5 MR. TOUGER: By the way, one last question.

6 THE COURT: Yes. Go ahead.

7 MR. TOUGER: It wasn't discussed today. How long is 8 the trial supposed to last? I know it is to start April 11th.
9 How long will it last?

10 THE COURT: I had been told two to three weeks; is 11 that correct.

12 MR. BLAIS: We advised the Court four weeks.

13 THE COURT: Okay.

14 MR. BLAIS: I have heard from some of the CJA counsel
15 that the Court had been speaking to that they were told two or 16 three weeks. I'm not sure where that impression came from. We 17 told the Court four weeks.

18 MR. TOUGER: I just wanted to have it.

19 THE COURT: Thank you.

20 That's a good question to ask.

21 MR. TOUGER: Is that just for the government's case?
22 Four weeks?

23 THE COURT: It is your good faith estimate of what you
24 think the trial is going to take?

25 MR. BLAIS: Yes. Obviously that may move depending on

GlF5galC

conference

1 whether there are resolutions with certain defendants but the
2 best estimate would be four weeks.

3 (pause)

4 THE COURT: All right. So, I'm going to enter an
5 order here, David Touger is appointed pursuant to the Criminal
6 Justice Act subject to any obligation on the part of John
7 Galanis to repay or make installment payments.

8 Mr. Galanis, you are now represented by counsel,
9 Mr. Touger is appointed and Mr. Ryan, do you have an 10 application?

11 MR. RYAN: I have an application to be relieved as 12 counsel of record for Mr. Galanis, your Honor.

13 THE COURT: Any objection, Mr. Galanis?

14 DEFENDANT JOHN GALANIS: No, your Honor. None.

15 THE COURT: Any objection, Mr. Touger?

16 MR. TOUGER: No, your Honor. And just so the record
17 is clear, Mr. Galanis is no longer proceeding pro se, I am
18 counsel of record and not standby counsel.

19 THE COURT: That is absolutely correct.

20 Mr. Galanis, as of now, is no longer pro se, he is 21 represented by you, Mr. Touger, and I am granting, without 22 objection from Mr. Galanis, Mr. Ryan's application to be 23 relieved as standby counsel and also as counsel of record.

24 So, with the thanks of the Court, Mr. Ryan, for being 25 here today, you are relieved and we will do an order to that

GlF5galC

conference

1 effect so it is clear on the docket.

2 MR. RYAN: Thank you very much, your Honor.

3 THE COURT: Thank you, Mr. Galanis. Thank you
4 Mr. Touger. Thank you Mr. Blais.

5 If there is nothing further, we are adjourned.

6 DEFENDANT JOHN GALANIS: Thank you, your Honor.

7 MR. TOUGER: Thank you, your Honor.

8 MR. BLAIS: Thank you, your Honor.
